Weekly Financial Review.

NEW YORK, July 14, 1894.

For the past week, the chief influence acting upon Wall Street interests has been the disorganization of business arising out of the great Western strikes. The remarkable fact is that,—with so many thousands of the working classes in open hostility not only to capital but to the United States Government, and with the threats of labor leaders to carry this disorder to the utmost extent that the numbers of their followers made possible,—the financial centre of the country has remained calm, values have been comparatively unaffected. European holders of our investments have shown some uneasiness at this spectacle of organized revolt against capital and the laws that protect it—which is only what might be expected from the distance separating the event from the observers;—and there has been some consequent selling by the London market, though barely sufficient to visibly affect quotations here.

The cause of this confidence in the financial markets has been the conviction, entertained from the first, that the disturbance could be only temporary,—so brief indeed as barely to afford a chance for making a safe "bear" attack on the market. Wall Street has become so familiar with labor disturbances as to know pretty well how to value them. It understands the intrinsic weakness of the strike principle, when fairly put to the test, and has learnt that such contests are most apt to end in some form of relief from the restraints or exactions that have arbitrarily enforced by the unions. In this case, it has been seen that the arraying of the utmost force of organized labor could only end in a defeat that would widely discredit the union principle and emancipate industry from the disturbing rule of the unions. The interruption of travel and transportation has been regarded as more a temporary postponement of railroad business than as so much permanent loss; and the destruction of property has been viewed as a charge upon the local governments which have failed to prevent violence, rather than upon the corporations that have been raided. Moreover, whatever minor forms of actual and uncompensated loss have fallen upon the railroad interest, it is felt to be a small matter in comparison with the offset accruring from the signal failure of the strike principle and the consequent future limitation of the union's power of disturbance. The firm attitude assumed by the Government in, for the first time, affirming that these violent methods of strike are fundamentally opposed not only to the rights of the citizen but also to the laws of the United States, is an invaluable contribution towards confidence in the future immunity of our railroads and other large corporations as against the lawless interruptions of labor from which the country has suffered so much and by which the use of capital has been surrounded with very serious risks. In brief; Wall Street regards the struggle as the crowning battle between the employing class and the employed class, in which the former has regained its right to unobstructed freedom of contract in the employment of labor. The result of this victory is of no small value to the future stability of our industries; and the estimate put upon it is significantly expressed in the steadiness of the financial markets amid so much confusion.

Another result of much value to the railroads has come out of the strike. Under the past depression of business and the general fall in prices, the roads have felt the necessity of a general reduction in wages, and yet have hesitated to enforce it lest it should produce a labor disturbance. They have now an opportunity of replacing their past employes, and are doing so upon a generally reduced scale of wages. A valuable opportunity has thus been afforded for the railroads conforming their scale of expenses to the general and probably permanent, reduction in prices. Thus what has been dreaded as a possible great national calamity turns out to be a valuable contribution towards completing the process of readjustment which our material interests are now undergoing.

Congress is now within a few days of the new tariff, and so far nothing has risen in the conference of the two houses suggesting the possibility of a disagreement. In business circles however there is no disposition to take anything for granted in this matter, and the effects of the adoption of the bill therefore cannot be measured until the agreement between the Senate and House has been finally completed. At present, the feeling is very common that a general revival of business will then set in, from which a steady development may be expected. Accounts from European centres indicate that the enactment of the tariff will be the signal for a revival of interest in American investments. Taking all the conditions and probabilities as they stand to day, we should not be surprised that, within the next one or two months, the situation is construed as favoring the setting-in of a general process of pronounced improvement is the industrial, commercial and financial interests of the nation.

The Locust, or Cicada.

Some of the readers of the REPUBLICAN will likely remember that, during the summer of 1889, I gave some account of my investigation with the locust; that being the year the brood of central Pennsylvania were up. Among other things I expected to establish the boundaries of our brood, but did not get it fully accomplished. I found the southwestern boundary to be a few miles west of Altoona, and southwest of that and Bedford county, and that in some of the southern and eastern counties they were up in 1885, and that our brood extended easternward into Columbia county. I have not known any full account of their mode of propagation or life, during their earthly period, given by any one.

I found in my investigations that the young, when hatched or coming from the eggs deposited in the shoots of trees and falling to the ground, were very small, requiring a lens to view them fully, and that they had the same form as when they emerge from the ground, being furnished with their digging claws. I had provided myself with a zinc box three feet square, with an oak plank bottom, which I put in the ground and filled with suitable soil; which I supplied well with the young by sticking in a number of shoots at the time of their coming forth from the eggs.

I have lately been examining them and find that now, at the age of five years, they are about the size of a grain of wheat and still retaining their same form. And my opinion is that they will continue to grow slowly until the period of their coming up in 1906 for an enjoyment of about 30 days of life above ground. They are certainly a mysterious insect, showing the works of the Divine hand. The etomologist of New York state, in mentioning some of the counties that they are in up there this season, states "that comparatively little is known about the pest." I hope, through time, we will know them more fully. WILLIAM P. FISHER.

How Postage Stamps are Made.

Every part of postage stamp making is done by hand. The designs are engraved on steel—200 stamps on a single plate. These plates are inked by two men, and then are printed by a girl and a man on a large hand press. They are dried as fast as printed, and then gummed with a starch paste made from potatoes. This paste is dried by placing the sheet in a steam fanning machine. and then the stamps are subjected to a pressure of 2,000 tons in a hydraulic press. Next the sheets are cut so that each one contains 100 stamps, after which the paper between the stamps is perforated, and, after being pressed, the sheets are taken away. If a single stamp is injured the whole sheet is burned.

Kloss—Burley.

At the early hour of six o'clock, at the home of her parents in Tyrone, Miss Jennie Burley was on Tuesday united in marriage to Mr. D. Shelley Kloss. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Gilbert assisted by Rev. H. G. Furbay. Among the guests present were Miss Jennie Crittenden, of this place, and Miss Edith Cooke, of Philadelphia, the latter playing the wedding march. Miss Burley is well known in Bellefonte and her many friends join in heartiest congratulations.

Dr. Charles Shaffner, a celebrated specialist of Philadelphia, is at present a guest at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Jacob V. Thomas, on Allegheny street.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, July 16, 1894.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

The alleged conference of committees from the House and Senate on the tariff bill, which is actually only a conference between eight democrats and the various trusts which demand protection of their interests in payment for past and future contributions to the democratic corruption fund, is still going on, and from what has leaked out there has been some very lively word battles in the committee room in which the meetings are held. Little Mr. Wilson, who by order of Mr. Cleveland was put at the head of the House Ways and Means committee, got so worked up at one of these meetings at the various demands made on behalf of the trusts by the Senators that he left the room in a huff and swore he would have nothing more to do with it. However, after a consultation with boss Cleveland he thought better of it and is again a regular attendant of the meetings, and before the thing is closed will probably vote as meekly for what the trusts want as any of his colleagues. No indications of when the legal conference, which will be attended as by law provided by the entire committees appointed by the Vice President and Speaker of the House respectively, will begin has been given to the six republicans who are members of those committees.

Senator Hale's resolution calling attention to the irregular and illegal status of the meetings now being held may be heard from again in a way that will be both unexpected and unpleasant to the democrats and the trusts. When conference committees were by law provided for in cases of disagreement between the House and Senate on pending legislation it was not with the intention that the members of the majority party should devote days and weeks to bargaining and dickering with each other in order to arrive at a cut and dried agreement which should then be sprung on the minority and solidly supported by the majority. On the contrary, it was intended that the conference should be all that the term implies—a full and free discussion of the points of difference between the House and Senate, by representatives of the House and Senate, and not by representatives of only the political parties that happen to be in control of those bodies, and never until now has that intention been deliberately violated, although there have been hundreds of conferences held. Senator Voorhees admitted that a mistake was made by not inviting the republicans to be present at the first meeting held, but so far as known he has taken no step to correct that mistake. Strictly speaking those eight democrats have no legal right to tinker with that tariff bill in the forced absence of the six republican members of the conference committee, and their attempting to do so may make trouble for them and their party. This tariff business is a long way from being settled.

Some of the democrats have suddenly discovered that Utah will probably go republican and so greatly are they exercised over it that they are actually trying to get Mr. Cleveland to veto the bill for the admission of that territory to the union. Mr. Cleveland did not want the Utah bill passed at this session of Congress, but from the best obtainable information it is not probable that he will veto the bill now that it has passed, as it would be difficult to find a good reason for so doing.

The commission which Mr. Cleveland has agreed to appoint under the act of 1888, to investigate the railway strike, is not likely to secure any very valuable information, inasmuch as it will have no authority to get to the bottom of the trouble by investigating the cause of the strike against the Pullman company, which was responsible for all the rest. It can only deal with interstate railways and their employes. It is difficult to understand how the labor organization got the idea that this commission would have authority to arbitrate. One section of the law under which Mr. Cleveland will appoint the two additional commissioners to serve with the U. S. Commissioner of Labor in making this investigation does authorize arbitration by such a commission, but only after application has been made by both parties to the controversy for arbitration.

Just to show the country that it can do business rapidly when so minded, the Senate has in one week passed no less than nine of the regular appropriation bills, and the programme for the present week includes the passing of the other five. With all the appropriation bills out of the way only the tariff bill will stand in the way of adjournment.

There is a feeling of relief in Congress and in administration circles at the failure of the strike, which by reason of the non-action of the half anarchist democratic governor of Illinois, at one time threatened to become a very serious matter. The Attorney General has asked for an appropriation of $255,000 to pay the extra expenses incurred by reason of the strike by the department of Justice. The War department estimates have not been made up.

What Comes of Inequality.

If you are a person of common sense and natural feeling, you must have often thought over these terrible inequalities and their cruel injustice. If you are rich, you perhaps think that inequality is a good thing—that it fosters a spirit of emulation, and prevents things from stagnating at a dead level. But if you are poor, you must know well that when equality is so outrageous as the figures clearly show, it fosters nothing but despair, recklessness and drunkenness among the very poor; arrogance and wastefulness among the very rich; meanness, envy, and snobbery among the middle classes. Poverty means disease and crime, ugliness and brutality, drink and violence, stunted bodies and unenlightened minds. Riches heaped up in idle hands mean flunkeyism and folly insolence and servility, bad example false standards of worth, and the destruction of all incentive to useful work in those who are best able to educate themselves for it. Poverty and riches together mean the perversion of our capital and industry to the production of frippery and luxury while the nation is rotting for want of good food, thorough instruction and wholesome clothes and dwellings for the masses. What we want in order to make true progress is more bakers, more school-masters, more wool-weavers and tailors, and more builders; what we get is more foot-men, more game-keepers, more jockeys, and more prostitutes. That is what our newspapers call "sound political economy." What do you think of it? Do you intend to do anything to get it remedied?—[From Fabian Tracts, No, 13.

Capacity Of Heaven.

A correspondent says: From Bombaugh's "Gleanings for the Curious" I read the following curious calculation on the capacity of Heaven: The base of the calculation is found in Revelations, xxi., [illegible] measured the city of Jerusalem [illegible] a reed [illegible] The [illegible] the breadth, and the height are equal." Let us see; 12,000 furlongs, 7,920,000 feet, which cubed is 948,088,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 cubic feet. Half of this we will reserve for the throne of God and the court of heaven, half the remainder for streets, leaving a balance of 124,198,272,-000,000,000,000. Divide this last by 4,-076, the cubical feet in a room 16 feet square, and you will find that there is still enough left for 30,321,843,750,600,000 rooms.

We will now suppose that the world always did and always will contain 990,000,-000 inhabitants and that a generation lasts 13½ years, making in all 2,570,000,000 for each century—that the world will stand 100 centuries, making in all 2,970,000,-000,000 inhabitants. Supposing there are 100 worlds equal to this in point of inhabitants and duration of years, making 297,000,000,000,000, then heaven, according to the measurement above, is large enough to allow 100 rooms each 16 feet feet square to the human soul.

She Was Excited.

A good joke has just leaked out about one of Mill Hall's popular and pleasant young ladies, which occurred during the disaster last Friday. It seems that while the fire was making rapid headway toward the residence of this young lady, who was very much excited, she ran upstairs, and thinking she had placed all her clothes in a trunk, which was standing nearby, picked it up and ran down stairs and out on the street, when a young man told her that he would carry it away for her. The trunk seemed to be empty, and after going a short distance he opened it and found it was empty. However, some of her clothes were gotten out, but the young people of that place are having plenty of fun over this occurrence with her.

Beware of Fruit Skins.

With regard to the eating of fruit an important caution must be given: Fruit skins carry germs, and are no more intended for human sustenance than potato skins, melon rinds or pea pods. The bloom of the peach is a luxuriant growth of microbes, that of the grape only less so, and when these skins are taken into the stomach they find most favorable conditions for their lively and rapid development, which causes the decay of the fruit before it is possible to digest it. This is the reason that many persons think they cannot eat raw fruit. If they would in all cases discard that skin, they would derive only good from the fruit itself.

Keystone Crusaders.

A. M. Rambo, of South 8th street, Philadelphia, is organizing a party to take a trip to the Holy Shrine at Jerusalem. He styles his band "Keystone Crusaders." They will travel in a specially chartered steamer and will visit Bermuda, the Azores Gibraltar, Malaga, Granada, Algiers, Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, the Pyramids, Jaffa, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Bethany, etc., Caifa, Mount Carmel, (optional side trip to Galilee) Beyrout, Rhodes, Smyrna, Ephesus, Constantinople, Athens, Messina Capri, Naples, Pompeii and Rome.

The excursion will leave New York City Wednesday, February 6, 1895, and will be under the mangement of F. C. Clark, of New York, and Alfred A. Guthrie, Albany, N. Y. The tour will last sixty two days. Mr. Rambo says: A gentleman who went over our proposed route last year, said that it had cost him $1,200, and he missed Bermuda, the Azores, Malaga, Granada, etc.

In speaking of the make up of the party he furthers says: The party will be made up of representative people and agreeable traveling companions from every state in the Union. Ladies or gentlemen of any nationalty, religious belief, or adhering to any Association can join the pilgrimage. We are not clannish. The only qualification necessary is that all persons applying must be of good character and standing in society. One half of the ship is already full. To The Atlantic Coast and Return at $10 the Round Trip.

On July 26th next the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run another of its popular sea-shore excursions. These trips are planned for the express purpose of furnishing an economical opportunity for people living in Western Pennsylvania to visit some of the principal summer resorts of the Atlantic Coast. The tickets permit of a stay of nearly two weeks, and a choice of destination is allowed—Atlantic City, the most popular resort in America, Cape May, appropriately called the Queen of the Coast, Sea Isle City, the Gem of the Coast, and Ocean City, last but not by no means the least attractive of the places.

Special train will leave Pittsburgh on above mentioned date at 8.50 A. M., arriving at Altoona 12·25 P. M. where stop for dinner will be made, and reaching Philadelphia 7. 20 P. M. Passengers can spend the night in Philadelphia, and take any regular train of the following day for the shore.

An Incarnate Sepulcher.

Pure health for every human organism depends on the constant and prompt removal of the waste matter of the system, every vein and cell sending to the surface through some one of myriad outlets the material that has done its work and become dead matter foreign to the animal economy. If we check this process by closing the lungs or skin or any other channel, the man speedily dies, poisoned by his own corruptions. Alcohol checks this removal of waste matter. The man 'bloats" as we say, perhaps prides himself on his fullness of flesh, and go es about an incarnate sepulcher, ready to die of lockjaw if he runs a splinter into his hand, or to become the ready prey of any disease.—From "Paralysis For Sale;" Demorest's Magazine for August.

This "all round" family magazine is published for only $2 a year by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 E. 14th St., New York.

The new group of the members of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist Episcopal church forms a really handsome picture. It contains some 228 portraits, all good size, with a larger one of the president of the conference, Bishop John F. Hurst, D. D., L. L. D., in the centre. The likenesses are excellent and under each portrait is printed the name. The ministers are arranged in the order of their seniority in the conference, the oldest being nearest the center. Our Methodist friends may thus familiarize themselves with the likenesses of the preachers in advance of the coming session of the conference to be held in the First Methodist Episcopal church of Tyrone. The group cost only $3.50, which is considerably less than the group of 1886 sold for though it was smaller and contained fewer portraits.

Preparing For Better Times.

Strikes and depressed business, low prices and no profits, reduced output and consumption still more reduced fill most persons with despair in these days.

But it is in days like these and only in such days that the foundations of abundant prosperity are laid. The strain of low prices and reduced demand is in all establishments, forcing economy and efficiency. New processes are being worked out, small savings are made, machinery is improved, new plant is found necessary, the standard for workmen has to be raised. Poor hands are dropped. More is required of the good ones. Pay lists are received. Purchases are made more sharply. Much neglected when business is rushing is now looked after and straightened out.

While this is going on inside of all establishments in the general world of trade and manufacture, the remorseless seclection of the fittest is taking place. The weaker establishments are crowded to the wall. Only plants which can work at the narrowest margin can be kept going at all. The rest shut down or go out of business. Factories and mills poorly placed or provided with an inefficient plant are closed never to be reopened. They will stand for years melancholy industrial ruins such as were laid waste after '37, '47, '57, 73, to '78 and '84.

These changes and improvements and this rigorous selection work infinite suffering and loss; but in time the country gets down to bed rock. Cheap prices can be met with profits. In spite of the hard times, establishments with the best plant and well-managed, with rigorous economy, find they are making a little money, the long, hard preparation produce effect in a sudden expansion of product, joined to great profits due to the cheapness of production secured under pressure of hard times.

Above all and besides all, these are days when everybody is saving, and the savings of everybody fast create a great mass of capital on whose flood tide speculation is launched.

A Karthaus Mystery.

On Friday of last week two men who were sawing shingle bolts in the woods near Karthaus, while sawing up a tree that had fallen in a laurel thicket, found the skeleton of a man lying in a boggy hole in the ground in the laurel about fifty feet from a stream called Cold run. A coroner's jury examined the remains as well as they could and found it to be the body of a man about 45 or 50 years old. He had worn heavy, No. 9 log drivers' shoes, one of which was missing. He had worn a brown coat, and in the pockets was a red cotton handkerchief. The pants, drawers and shirt were so decayed that it was impossible to tell what their colors had been. A wide-rimmed felt hat lay near by. One half the skull was missing and the lower jaw was gone. There was a large hole in the left side of the skull, apparently made with a blunt instrument. There were only two teeth in the upper jaw and they were badly decayed. The man had long black and gray hair and beard. The bones on the arms and legs indicated that he had been a large strong man. It was impossible to tell whether the body had lain there two years or ten, but it was evident that he had been murdered. Years ago hundreds of men worked in the lumber woods in that locality for Ardell & Blackwell and it is probable that the man drew his pay and was murdered by a comrade, who took his money dragged the body into the laurel thicket and then left.

The coroner's jury decided then that the man came to his death at the hands of some person or persons unknown, and the skeleton was buried where it was found.

Pay Your Subscription.

A newspaper in Illinois recently brought suit against forty-three men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained judgment in each case for the amount of each claim. Of these twenty-eight made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed them, thus preventing attachments. Then under the decision of the supreme court they were arrested for petit larceny, and bound over in the sum of $300 each. All but six gave the bonds. The postal laws make it petit larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

The Great International Meeting Now in Progress in Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., July 12.—At the opening session of the Christian Endeavor convention Governor McKinley delivered the address of welcome. Rev. Charles F. Dickinson presided. After vocal exercises by 1,500 trained voices and short addresses by prominent members and leaders of the society, Secretary Baer read his annual report on the growth and work of the organization. In March, 1884, the first company of Christian Endeavor was organized in Taber, Iowa, by Rev, J. C. Cowan, and today there are hundreds of city battalions of junior companies, some of which are large in numbers. Three years ago 855 companies had reported. This year great progress has been made.

"The commanding officer," the secretary said, "finds that this host is not a mere wave of foamy, youthful enthusiasm a part of it cast upon the shores of Lake Erie. On the contrary, it is an army as strong as steel and as flexible as ribbon. It is a God given, God protected, God advanced army.

The growth of the society during the past twelve months has been the largest since it was organized thirteen years ago. During that period 7,395 companies have been added to the ronks, against a gain of 5,276 companies added to the rolls during the previous year. England has now 1,453 regularly enrolled companies, including 38 in Scotland and 38 in Ireland, or a total of 75,000 individual members.

The gains have been very heavy in India, Japan, Turkey, China, France, Spain, Mexico, and other foreign countries. The total individual membership of the society in Canada at the present time is 134,580.

In all, there are 28,696 companies enrolled in the United States, and the total individual membership throughout the world is over 2,000,000.

Thirty evangelical denominations are represented in the society the Presbyterians still leading with 6,652 companies, the Congrerationalists. the Baptists, Disciples, Methodists and Lutherans follow in the order named.

In all 183,620 have joined the churches during the past twelve months. At St. Louis, 70,000 ; at Minneapolis, 82,500 ; at New York, 120,000 ; at Montreal, 158,000 and now at Cleveland 183,659.

Governor McKinley visited all the meetings and greeted the visitors. A noon prayer meeting was held at the old stone church on the public square, and denominational rallies were held in the afternoon.

The Christian Endeavor convention managers are filled with enthusiasm tonight over the unexpected success of the meeting in point of numbers. Evidently the people have recovered from their panic over the railway strike and are [illegible] them. Special and regular trains have followed each other into the city all day loaded to overflowing with young people wearing the badge of the society.

The line boats also brought hundreds from east and west until the streets were crowded with them. The numbers now in the city are variously estimated at from 25,000 to 30,000. At least 40,000 people attended the opening meetings this morning, the tent, hall and two churches being crowded. At the evening session the annual address of President Clark was read at both tent and Saengerfest hall. There was great regret at the absence of the president and his illness, but his words of inspiration were received with gladness.

Are Losing Rapidly.

Chicago, July 12.—It is the opinion of careful and conservative observers to night that the labor troubles, so far as Chicago and its vicinity is concerned, are dying by inches. There may be a few more manifestations of the continued existence, in the form of minor walkout and similar demonstrations, but these will be but the spasms that precede final dissolution. In this opinion the authorities at army headquarters at the government building and at the police department are paactically unanimous.

United States Marshal Arnold, who has kept his finger upon the key of the situation from the moment the authority of his office was invoked, said this afternoon to the United Press as he issued orders for the calling in of 200 ofh is deputies : "The strike or revolt, or whatever it may be called, is practically a thing of the past." Order prevails everywhere within this jurisdiction, and it is my opinion that the troops might be withdrawn to morrow without apprepension of the possibility of further disorder. The crisis has been passed and with safety.

A Riot in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia July 12.—The Battle of the Boyne was fought over to night in the very heart of the city, and as a result twenty Irishmen are nursing crocked heads and cut faces and a dozen more are in the police station charged with inciting to riot The local lodges of orangemen had celebrated the day with a picnic at Rising Sun park, and with banners flying they were parading down Broad street on the way to their lodge rooms. At Cherry street under the shadow of the Academy of Fine Arts, a gang of green ribbon men became enraged at the tune played by the orangemen's band, and a shower of bricks flew into the ranks of the marchers. The pioneer corps armed with sabres and axes, charges on their assailants, and for a few minutes there was about as lively a riot as Philadelphia has seen in recent years The reserves were promptly order out and the rioters were clubbed into submission. At the Hahnemann hospital close by, some twenty men had wounds more or less serious attended to. Daniel Kielt, one of the attacking party had his face split open with a sabre and received several severe wounds. Michael Burns, one of his companions was chopped over the head with an axe and both are in serious shape. After the police had dispersed the mob and looked up a score of the rioters, and loyal orangemen resumed their march.

Serious Charges Made.

Washington, July 12.—Charges preferred against Mr. Crittenden, the United States consul general in the city of Mexico by Captain Wm. Edgar, of Texas, a former employ of the consul general, are under investigation by Secretary Gresham the charges are generally that Mr. Crittenden appropriated to his own use the money and effects of Americans who have died in Mexico, and in a specific case Captain Edgar says that the consul general divided with him the estate of a dead American. Edgar admits, according to information obtained at the state department, that he received the watch of the deceased and says he is willing to return it because he believes Crittenden is a dishonest man. It is learned at the department that Mr. Crittenden was responsible for the dismissal of Captain Edgar from the consular service. The investigation has not reached the point of reference to Minister Gray

Want to Resume Work.

Massillion, O., July 12.—Superintendent Stout, of the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railway, was waited upon to-day by committees from all the railroad orders, except the American Railway Union, and requested to re-employ the men who were laid off yesterday, and who had caused the sympathetic strike or taken any voluntary part in it. Lists of employes not members of the American Railway Union were presented to him, and arrangements are being made as rapidly as possible to resume operations without the assistance of the Debs sympathizers.

The American Railway Union men are very much worried, and many of them have asked the privilege of renouncing their organization and being taken back. United States deputy marshals have been sworn in all along the line to guard the property.

A Bad Year for Strikes.

Harrisburg, July 12.—The fourth coming reports of Albert S. Boils, chief of the bureau of industrial statistics, contains complete statistics of the strikes that occured in the state during the year. There were fifty-three strikes, or twice as many as occurred in 1892. Thirty-four of these were by the coal miners in the bituminous [illegible] worsteds, four among carpet weavers, two among cotton weavers, one among china ware manufacture's employes, one among cloak makers and one among the journey men plasters. Not one of these strikes succeeded. The number engaged in them was 950, the number of persons involved were 17,308, and the estimated loss in wages was $1,395.423.

Statement of Murderer Carpenter.

Mifflintown, Pa., July 12.—A statement prepared by the murderer, James Carpenter, a short time before his execution, was published to day. In it he admitted knowledge of the murder of his father, that the crime was committed by three outside parties for plunder ; that they apprised him of it, informing him of the disposition of the body, and threatened him with death if he disclosed their identity. The statement is discounted, however, by remarks made by Carpenter to Sheriff Lapp, which the latter has not made public, to the effect that he committed the murder, but was drunk and half crazy at the time, and that he did it on account of the treatment that he had received from his father.

Pullman May Arbitrate.

Washington, July 12.—It is reported to-night on the authority of the Knights of Labor officials who have been in Washington for several days that negotiations are now in progress looking to the abitration of the controversy between the Pullman Palace Car Company and its employes, which was the direct cause of existing labor troubles throughout the country.

It is said Mr. Pullman has offered to submit the controversy to arbitration if the leaders of the strike will order the removal of the existing boycott.

Congressman Hick's Pension Bill.

Representative Hicks has introduced a bill at the request of the G. A. R. posts of this state. He would place all soldiers who served 90 days on the rolls at from $4 to $12 a month. The bill proposes to repeal the act of 1890. Persons who so served and are 50 years of age or less are to get $4 per month; between the ages of 50 and 55 years, $6 per month; between the ages of $55 and 60,$8 per month; between 60 and 65,$10, and all persons over 65 years, $12 per month.

A Big Pasturage.

A Union county syndicate leased 1,000 acres of timberland in the Eastern part of Centre county. Part of it they enclosed with a substantial barbed wire fence. They have over two thousand head of sheep in their flock. If the investment proves a paying one they intend to swell the number 10,000 in the near future.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

President Cleveland Will Appoint a Committee to Look Into the Labor Troubles.

Washington, July 12.—President Cleveland informed a committee, representing organized labor, this afternoon that he would in the near future appoint a commission composed of three members of which the United States commissioner of labor shall be chairman under chapter 1,063 of the laws of 1888 to inquire into and investigate thoroughly the causes leading up to the present labor disturbances of the country. This announcement was made at the executive mansion at 5 o'clock to J. W. Hayes, general secretary of the Knights of Labor, T. B. McGuire and C. A. French.

These gentlemen called by an appointment arranged earlier in the day. They were shown into the president's working room where they present their credentials and made formal application to the president to appoint a board of arbitration under the law of 1888.

The president listened to the labor men present their views, and then told them to make such an appointment that all strikes must be called off by organized labor and all violence and mob rule ceased. He informed them that law and order must be restored before he took any steps looking in the direction of ascertaining the causes that produced the present condition of affairs. United States troops would be still retained in the disturbed sections to see that the orders of the United States courts were enforced, interstate traffic must be resumed and peace restored throughout the country. The labor committee was given to understand that this commission would be appointed apart from any demands made by the strikers for arbitration. In fact the commission would have, under the law, no power to arbitrate, but simply to investigate and report its conclusions to the president and to congress.

Private Secretary Thurber late to-night authorized the following statement in regard to the president's intended appointment of a commission:

Senator Kyle introduced to the president, by appointment, this afternoon, a committee representing various labor organizations who applied to him for the appointment of a committee to investigate the causes of the latest strike and the occasion of the controversy between certain railroads which were effected thereby and their employes. The law passed on October 1, 1888, especially authorizes the appointment of such a commission and defines its duties. It provides that the commissioner of labor shall be chairman and that two other commissioners shall be appointed by the president. It appearing to the president that the parties were entitled to such a commission [illegible] organize [illegible] purpose of investigation. The commissioners to be appointed by him have not been selected and will probably be a number of days before the appointments are announced.

Murder Attempted.

Pullman, Ill., July 12.—Mr. Middleton, superintendent of the Pullman works, was standing at the depot last night talking to a friend when his companion grappled with a man who could be but dimly seen in the darkness. A short struggle ensued, and before Mr. Middleton had time to act the man escaped. His friend told him that he had caught the man in the act of drawing a revolver on Mr. Middleton. Mr. Middleton says he has several times been followed by suspicious characters, and he thinks his life may be in danger.

Col. Turner had the premises of the Hotel Florence searched this afternoon. The water pipes, sewer pipes and gas pipes were taken apart, but no explosives found "Dynamite," said Col. Turner to-night, "is the weapon we fear. We do not believe any mob will have the courage to march on armed men, but we believe there are men in the ranks of the strikers who would not hesitate to use dynamite."

Civil Engineer Doty, of the Pullman company, acknowledged to-night that Geo M. Pullman no longer has any liking for Chicago, and that if business ever becomes profitable again new and larger car shops will pe built in New Jersey, as a supplement to those here. He denied that the ones here would be moved.

Mass Meeting of Miners.

Philipsburg, Pa., July 12.—At Osceola a mass meeting had been called by a local leader among the miners this morning. It was his intention to advise the men to go to work at 40 cents per gross ton. It was attended by about 1,000 indignant miners. The man who was to have made the proposition did not turn up and the miners present passed a resolution to stand firm for 50 cents a ton. At this meeting it was reported that a priest had been offered $1,000 if he would induce twenty miners to go to work. He was sent for. On his arrival at the meeting he told the miners the report was correct.

A conference between the local operators was held in this place to-day. The whole situation was gone over, the operators contending that they could not pay the advanced rate and the miners said that there was not a living to be made at the 40 cent rate. After several hours' talk the meeting adjourned, leaving the situation just as it was before.

—The labor situation seems to be steadily improving. Gompers very sensibly refuses to order a strike of the Federation of Labor, and the strike of the Knights of Labor ordered by Soverign has proved a failure. The railroads are again in pretty full operation, and good sense seem to be returning to the workingmen generally. In California the situation continues some what critical, owing to the greater amount of ruffianism at large in that State. The firm stand taken by the President, and the vigorous steps taken to enforce the law, have had a moral as well as material effect, and the country seems in a fair way to be at peace again.

New Way to Catch a Man.

The Winchester girls have discarded the yellow garter and the pillow stuffed with love letters, and have discovered a new and sure scheme to ensnare the wily Clark county youths, as is evidenced by the following paragraph from the Democrat: "The latest superstition is that if a girl takes the small bow which fastens the lining of a man's hat, and wears it inside her shoe, she will have a proposal from the youth within a month. The success of the scheme may be open to question, but it is proving very destructive to hats."

—One of the most beautiful floral designs ever brought to Tyrone says the Times was furnished by M. S. Flack for a number of the railroad friends of the late Stephen Cresswell. The design was an engine and tender six feet long; the number of the engine on which Mr. C. worked; on the sides of the tender the letters "P. R. R." The whole was beautifully trimmed in flowers and presented a fine appearance.

The Law of the Dog.

Justice Henry W. Williams, of the Pennsylvania supreme court, has been looking up the law made and provided in reference to dogs and now we have a decision from the highest judicial tribunal of the commonwealth on a dog case. The gist of the supreme court's deliverance is to establish the fact that under the common law there is no such thing as legal property in a dog, but that the owner of the premises upon which with said owner's knowledge and consent a dog is habitually and continuously kept, is responsible for that dog's misdoings.

Why Arbitration Is Impossible.

The Senate did well in refusing to add an arbitration clause to the Daniel resolution upholding the hands of the President Senator Gallinger was impressed with the idea that the occasion demanded something be said on that head, and he proposed as an amendment that "the Senate approves the principle of voluntary arbitration as a means of settling disputes between employers and employees."

Everybody approves that principle when it is applicable. The vice of the proposition is that it is inapplicable to the present strike situation and had therefore no proper place in the Senate resolution. Certainly the railroad men who have struck from sympathy have nothing to arbitrate and Mr. Pullman has shown that between him and his car makers there was no room for arbitration, for his company could not do better than it had offered to do without losing money on every contract. These are his words :—

"There is no solution practicable unless those who wish to be employed at the Pullman shops realize and act upon the rule of business that the aggregate cost of work must not exceed its selling price. Continuous violation of that rule must wreck the Pullman shops or any other shops and permanently stop all work of its employees. This company cannot control the selling price of cars, and it cannot pay more for making them than it can contract to sell them for. It is impossible to submit to arbitration whether or not it shall do so, and that it shall do so is the only demand make upon the company."

The sentimentalist, the unreflecting and the misinformed who talk arbitration as a possible penance or preventive of the present labor trouble should read and weigh these sober words of Mr. Pullman. Some insist that if his representations are true, he had no fear of the results of arbitration. That is not certain. Arbiters are human and fallible. How could he honestly consent to an arbitration when he knew if the judgment of the arbiters was adverse to him he could not abide by it? He laid before his men the best he could do for them and for himself. They refused to accept his offer, so work had to stop. And now in relation we have the remarkable result that the Chicago butchers refuse to kill hogs because Pullman will not make cars at a loss.

WAS HE MURDERED?

And is it George Potter Who Was Found Dead in Potter County?

On Tuesday a young man was found in the Potter county woods with his throat cut from ear to ear and a telegraph dispatch was received in this place that the body was that of George Potter, oldest son of John F. Potter, Esq., both well known in this place. Inquiry has been made of any and all persons likely to know anything about the matter and all facts lead to the conclusion that the story is correct. It is well known that young Potter went to Potter county to work in the woods and was last heard from at the place where the body of the unfortunate young man was found.

The report states that his throat was cut from ear to ear, but does not state whether it was a case of murder or suicide, but the inference is the former. Young Potter, it is said, had his life insured for $1,500. His father was telegraphed for to go out, but was not at home, and so far as we can learn does not yet know the sad news.

VIGOROUS HEALTH FOR MEN

THE PASTILLE CURE FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY TRADE MARK

Prof. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED Pastille

Has been put up in a proprietary form since 1878, and has been used for years prior to that time in private practice. It is no untried nostrum, of doubtful reputation, but a genuine specific for a very prevalent disease. Thousands of men, of all ages, have at some time in life brought on nervous debility and exhaustion, with organic weakness, by over brain work, excesses, too frequent indulgence or indiscretion and vicious habits, and it is to these that we offer a remedy that will, by its direct action upon the seat of the disease, stop the drain and restore the patient to vigorous health and strength.

Our method of introducing Prof. Harris' Pastille treatment is one which commends itself to all sensible persons—for the reason that we supply it upon their judgment of its value. We ask of our patrons nothing in the way of expense beyond a postal card and a two cent postage stamp. The postal card to be used in sending us their full address and the postage stamp for the letter returning the statement of their case for which we supply them with a question blank, to be filled out, and an envelope addressed to ourselves for use in returning it when filled.

FREE TRIAL PACKAGE.

When we receive the statement on blank we prepare eight days' treatment and forward it by mail and prepay postage thereon—and along with the eight days' treatment we send full directions for using. The treatment in no way interferes with a person's attention to business, and causes no pain or inconvenience in any way.

We are so positive that it will give perfect satisfaction that we leave the matter of sending orders entirely with those using the free trial treatment. Having satisfied those sending for trial packages of our ability to benefit their sexual condition we feel that they are more largely interested than ourselves in continuing the use of the Pastilles. Even then we do not attempt to rob them by demanding high prices. On the contrary, we make the prices as low as possible, and the same to all. They are as follows: $3 for one month; $5 for two months; $7 for three months.

Trade Mark. SHAPE & SIZE OF GENUINE PASTILLE

These prices secure the delivery of the Pastilles by mail. If desired by express we leave the patient to pay the charges. For over ten years we have operated our business upon this plan with satisfactory results.

We ask all persons needing treatment for any of the secret ills which come to mankind through a violation of nature's laws to send us their address on postal card or by letter and allow us to convince them that PROF. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED PASTILLES have merit, and are what they need.

THE MILL HALL FIRE.

Twenty-two Houses and Other Buildings Totally Destroyed.

Friday's Lock Haven Express has the following regarding the Mill Hall fire:

About 12.30 o'clock today a telephone message was received from Mill Hall stating that a fire was raging in the borough and asking Mayor Mayer to send a fire engine and hose company to assist in extinguishing the blaze. An alarm was sounded and a few minutes later a fire engine and hose company was on the way to Mill Hall. The fire broke out in the stable of Frank Welch in the center of the town, and fanned by the high wind that was blowing, spread rapidly to other stables in the vicinity. The news that the town was on fire created great excitement in this city, and many persons started at once for Mill Hall.

MORE HELP NEEDED.

At 1.45 another message was received asking for more help, and a second steamer was at once started for the burning town. Owing to the intense excitement prevailing in Mill Hall it was almost impossible to obtain accurate information regarding the extent of the conflagration. It was learned however that the houses of Frank Welch, Wesley Brady, W. H. Mann and George Hiekoff, were burned, and also the Wilt House, together with a half dozen or more stables. About two o'clock the telephone wire burned off and no further particulars could be obtained in that way.

AID FROM BELLEFONTE.

At 2.30 the telephone line was repaired and further information was received from the scene of the fire. At that hour it was stated that all the buildings between the Presbyterian church and Shaffer's old hotel were burned, including the new Christian church, Brady's hall and McCloskey's drug store.

Bellefonte was asked to send a fire engine to assist the Lock Haven steamers in getting the fire under control and it arrived on a special train over the new railroad, making the run down in just 24 minutes, but when the boys got there the fire was all over.

At 3 o'clock the fire was about under control. The steamers from this city were playing on the flames, and bucket brigades were doing what they could to quench the fire. Several persons are reported to be missing, but whether they have lost their lives in the fire or not cannot be ascertained.

Several men were injured by falling from the roofs of buildings and a colored man named Webster, from this city, who fell from a roof had one of his hands badly cut with glass. The conflagration could be seen from the roofs of buildings in this city.

THE BUILDINGS BURNED.

Later information received at 3.30 regarding the number of buildings burned is as follows:

D. H. Stoner, store and residence; Widow Roffe, dwelling; the new Disciple church; Mrs. Erie Carstetter, tenement house; Brady's hall and three tenement houses; Wilt House, George Bressler's house, Mr. Mackey's house, Ammon Wilt's grocery store, building owned by the Hall estate; F. M. Welch, dwelling, Wesley Brady's store and house, Freeman Lindy's mansion house, Joseph Bartholmew's barber shop and dwelling, W. H. Mann's fine [illegible], J. E. McCloskey's dwelling [illegible] store, and stables of W. H. [illegible]. The stables and outbuildings connected with the other properties were also burned.

There are 27 buildings all destroyed. No estimate can be made of the loss.

Most of the household goods were burned, many of them after having been removed from the houses.

The above report can hardly be in full, as the Bellefonte visitors report at least thirty some buildings in all destroyed. The unfortunate part of the whole thing is that not over one half the properties were insured.

The total loss is about $60,000, and seventeen families were rendered homeless. The insurance amounts to $16,000.

A Freak.

One day last week a calf was born on the Carson farm, near Spring Mills, that was a freak. The cattle were pasturing during the day and in the evening a newly born calf was found, but it was dead. It had two well formed heads that joined at the neck and the body was of the average size and shape. Mr. Carson cut the double head off the carcass and the same has been mounted and can be seen at Spring Mills. It is quite a curiosity in its way. Had this freak lived it would have proven a fortune to its owner.

Engineer Cresswell Dead.

Steve Cresswell, of Tyrone, engineer on the Bald Eagle Valley road for a number of years, died of typhoid fever Tuesday evevning at 6 o'clock. He leaves to survive him a wife and two children. Deceased was a son-in-law of J. B. Eckert, of Lock Haven. The remains were taken to that city today on a special train and services were conducted in the Disciple church this afternoon.

He Wanted to Treat.

The other day a man from across the county stepped up to a bar in this town and said, "Here boys, I'm going to spend my last dollar." Just then a merchant to whom he was indebted and who could seldom get any money from him, stepped up and said, "What, do you mean to say that you intend to spend my dollar? That money does not belong to you. Come and pay me all you owe me and then drink." That man wilted, and thought the weather was exceedingly hot and many of the boys did not step up to enjoy a drink on some other persons dollar. But some did. Since then that man turned in and paid his debts, saying that he was greatly mortified and that he had been taught a good lesson. There is a pointer in this for others: During this season of excursions, picnics, outings, &c., persons ought to first pay their small debts and not enjoy a treat on some other person's money. Many a dollar belonging to printers and merchants are thus foolishly spent by persons who think they are enjoying their own money.—Tyrone Times.

Infested with Worms.

Since the great lake on the Gentzel farm in Spring township, caused by the heavy rains during the mouth of May, has disappeared that community is infested with millions of worms, which has destroyed entire fields of grass and other crops. The worms first made their appearance in fields where the water stood longest, are of a dark color and resemble the cut worm, except that they are smaller. They are traveling west and eat up everything as they go. They are so thick on the ground that one can scarcely walk along the road without [illegible] every step. Some of the older residents say they are similar to what years ago was known as the "army worm," and those who are a little superstitious think they are an omen of war.

Clarence Hospitality.

Mr. John Smaltz, one of Philadelphia's prominet shoe manufactures, accompanied W. S. Furst, Esq., to Bellefonte last week to enjoy a short vacation among the mountains and meet the young people of our town. These young men spent a lively day upon Eddy Lick and with the assistance ot George Uzzel, the genial proprietor of the Clarence Hotel, landed one hundred of the spreckled beauties. Furst and Smaltz speak in the highest terms of the hospitality of George Uzzle and his amiable wife and praise the accommodations offered in that thriving mountain village.

He is a Swindler.

A man representing himself as an agent for a Michigan plow company is traveling over the country selling sulky plows to farmers at doubt prices and taking notes for the same on the understanding that one-half the amount be boarded out at the rate of one dollar a day. If the farmer wishes to pay in ten days he is to have eight per cent. discount. The agent also offers to credit on the note $1.50 for every customer to whom the farmer may introduce him. When he gets the note the agent disappears and the note turns up in the hands of third parties, who demand full settlement.

What to do in Cases of Sunstroke.

The following instructions for restoring persons overcome by heat have just been reissued by the New York board of health:

Anyone overcome by the heat should be immediately removed to the nearest shade, and the collar of shirt or dress should be loosened. Send immediately for the nearest physitian and give the person cool drinks of water, black tea or coffee, if able to swallow.

If the skin is hot and dry, place the person in a sitting position against a tree, wall or anything that will be a support to the back; sponge with or pour some cold water over the body and limbs, and apply to the head pounded ice wrapped in a towel or other cloth. If there is no ice at hand keep a cool cloth on the head and pour cold water on it as well as on the body.

If the person is pale, very faint and pulse feeble, lay him down on his back, let him inhale ammonia for a few seconds, or give him a teaspoonful of aromatic spirits of ammonia or tincture of ginger in two tablespoonfuls of water. Uus no cold water upon the head or body, but rub the hands and feet and apply warm applications to the same until the circulation is restored.

Power of the Press.

The immense power a local newspaper possessing an attracting trade in the town in which it is published or diverting it into other cannels can hardly be estimated. Further, it is a matter that is seldom considered as an important factor in a town's prosperity, for the simple reason that business men generally do not give it a thought He who will partially consider this assertion will be convinced of the truth of it. The local paper is very naturally biased in favor of the place of its publication and if given a fair living patronage by home business men will guard well their interests just as the merchant gurrds the interest of his individual customer. But if a niggardly support is doled out to it, and it is compelled to solicit custom from neighboring cities, it cannot in justice to those patrons exert itself in behalf of its own town as it otherwise would. Try a system of liberality in the matter of advertising expenditure and mark the result.

DEBS IS CONFIDENT.

He Says There Is No Doubt of His Coming Out Ahead.

Chicago, July 16.—President Debs, of the American Railway union, still claims to be certain of coming out ahead in his fight with the railroads. Directors Goodwin and Hogan, of the American Railway union, left today to begin the work of organizing the men in the northwest and the country west of the Mississippi. There are now eight of these organizers out. "Our policy," said Mr. Debs, "is to keep these organizers with the men so the strikers will not weaken. We have everything solid west of the Mississippi. That is our strong point. I claim that as long as I have traffic stopped at point we have not yet lost the fight. It is as if you stop the flow of blood in an artery, you stop the circulation from the whole system.

"But everything seems to be running smoothly on the different roads, does it not?" Mr. Debs was asked.

"Oh, well," admitted the labor leader, "the passenger business in and out is being transacted fairly well, but there are no freight moving at all, and that's where we have the best of them. That's where we expect to cripple the enemy."

At the depots, Mr. Debs' statement that freight traffic is paralyzed is not by any means borne out. Most of the roads are moving freight without the slightest trouble.

When shown a United Press dispatch that Pullman strikers had asked him to call off the strike, Mr. Debs denied it flatly.

"The Pullman strikers are just as firm as ever," he said. "They have no intention of going back to work. If Pullman is satisfied, they are. Mr. Heathcote has not made me any proposition of that kind. On the contrary, he has assurred me of his continued co-operation."

Mr. Debs received a report from La Salle, Ill., this morning, declaring that the Rock Island road is again badly congested at that point. Mr. Debs asserted that within forty-eight hours he would have the Rock Island in as bad shape as ever.

The usual meeting of the American Railway union was held at Uhlich's hall this morning. President Debs addressed a large audience. Yesterday he spoke at eight different meetings.

Excitement in Oakland.

Oakland, Cal., July 16.—There was intense excitement at West Oakland shortly after noon to day. The Mendota freight train had left the yard and part of it had crossed Seventh street when the engineer discovered that some one had cut the air pipe. It was soon discovered that a number of coupling pins had been removed and an alarm was sent to police headquarters. An immense crowd gathered around the engine and soldiers from the Second regiment were called out. They charged the crowd and drove them back, several being prodded by bayonets. Twenty-one persons were arrested.

Killed by Lightning.

Wilmington, Del., July 16.—George W. Rumsey, a colored man, aged 35 years, while loading hay in a wagon near the city this afternoon, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. A horse and mule attached to the wagon were both killed and the wagon and hay were totally destroyed by fire. Rumsey's son and another man had some difficulty in saving Rumsey from being burned with his wagon. A chimney on the Friends' schools, this city, was struck by lightining this afternoon. The storm was brief, but very severe.

Will Meet in Harrisburg.

The state association of fire insurance agents will hold their annual meeting in Harrisburg on Wednesday, July 18. The organization is composed of local agents throughout the state. Its object is of a social nature. In the evening there will be a banquet and on Thursday morning there will be an excursion to Gettysburg.

Hint for Fly-Time.

An efficient fly poison, which has the merit of being poisonous only to flies is made of the yolk of an egg beaten up with a teaspoonful of each ground pepper and molasses. It should be put in places and set about. This is a simple process by which to catch the few flies that slip into a house before the screens are put up, for most housekeepers wait until warned by the buzzing insects of their arrival to put in the sea guards.

A Big Iron Ore Deal.

St. Paul, Minn., July 16.—Details of the Biwabik mine contract made last week proved it the most important dead ever made in the Lake Superior mining regions. The Biwabik Bessemer company, composed of heavy Pittsburg and other Pennsylvania capitalists, leases the mine of the Biwabik Ore company, and will operate it till such time as the latter can resume control. The new lessee has contracted with a heavy firm organized for the purpose under which this firm will mine a minimum of 1,000,000 tons of ore a year for the next five years, and should the market warrant, is to be prepared to do considerable more than this. The original lessees' minimum output of 390,000 tons is to be taken out this year, before the close of the shipping season.

Though the contract was only signed a week ago almost 200 men and a large machinery outfit are already at work. The contractors have bought eight locomotives and five steam shovels and have two of the latter at work today. Three shovels will be in the stripping, and two will mine ore, and it is estimated that these latter will easily put on cars not less than 4,000 tons a day. Work will be carried on day and night, and 750 men will be employed. The moving of a million tons of ore a year under a single contract is something never attempted in the world's history. The handling of this amount of material is a task utterly inconceivable except to those who have actually seen the operations carried on.

A Road in Operation.

Toledo, O., July 16.—When the switchmen went out on the Wheeling and Lake Erie road, General Manager A. G. Blair, discharged the sixteen hundred men on the line in every capacity and shut down the road. To-day the company issued orders resuming operations in all branches. All firemen who have applied for reinstatement and who were in good standing at the time of the suspension will be restored to their former positions. All former employes who, in the judgment of the officials, are entitled to re-employment after careful investigation may be put to work if needed. All but two striking men have gone back to work on the Ann Arbor road and all the roads kave plenty of men, old and new, to operate in full. Everything is running and the freight blockade is completely raised.

Debs Says They Must win.

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 16.—The members of the American Railway union here and at Laramie voted today unanimously not to return to work. The following telegram was received from Debs today:

Chicago, July 16.—Roads in the hands of receivers occupy the same position as all others in this strike. The proposition we made to the general managers has been refused. Our position is doubly strong in consequence. Renew every effort and carry it out to a finish. There is nothing to be afraid of. We must and will win.

[Signed] E. V. Debs.

She Needs No Divorce.

New Castle, Pa., July 16.—William Bartle, of Big Beaver township, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself through the head. His wife, from whom he had been separated for some time, was in an adjoining room at the time writing separation papers. A moment before Bartle had tried to induce his wife to live with him again. This she refused, and Bartle left the room saying: "I love you and will die for love; you will need no divorce." He then went into another room and in the presence of his brother and sister, shot himself. He was 27 years old and leaves three children

Lamb With Six Legs.

Carroltown News: On the farm of Bat Hobart, in Cambria county, can be seen a lamb six months old having six legs. It has its natural four legs and can run and walk like any other lamb, but on one side near the front shoulder come out two extra legs. They do not reach the ground, but extend backward and are as long as the natural legs. The animal is healthy and growing well.

SOLDIERS BLOWN INTO ETERNITY.

Horrible Slaughter Wrought by an Exploding Hotchkiss Gun.

Chicago, July 16.—This afternoon while one of the Hotchkiss guns was being transferred from the lake front to Hyde park it exploded, killing and injuring a number of persons. The accident occurred at Fortieth street and Grand boulevard, a fine residence district. The following is a complete list of the killed and injured:

Joseph H. Galler, farrier, troop B, Seventh cavalry, head blown off; Cannoneer Donovan, battery F, Second artillery, Fort Riley, Kansas, killed; Jeremiah Doyle, cannoneer, battery F, Second artillery, Fort Riley, Kansas, killed; Herbert Andres, trumpeter, troop B, Seventh cavalry, fatally wounded.

Injured: Sergeant King, Sergeant Liner, Private O'Donnell, Private Stolz, Private Enke, Private Urquhart.

All of the above were of battery F, Second artillery, Fort Riley, and were all struck by a projectile and seriously wounded. Several other soldiers were made deaf by the explosion.

A lady in the house of Frank Devil, at the corner of Grand boulevard and Fortieth street, was struck with a projectile and badly wounded. Seven horses were killed and three wounded. The battery was making a practice march down Grand boulevard when the explosion occurred.

The cause of the explosion is supposed to have been by a fuse on the caisson, which became ignited by getting under a loose screw. The wagons had just rattled across the Lake Shore railroad track on Fortieth street when the shell exploded, throwing bullets in all directions. Every pane of glass within two blocks was broken.

Such a demand, at the mouth of a "six shooter" sets a man thinking pretty lively! With a little more thinking, there would be less suffering.

Think of the terrible results of consumption! which might easily be averted by the timely use of Nature's Great Specific, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Consumption, which is Lung-scrofula, is a constitutional disease, and requires just such a thorough and effectual constitutional remedy! Taken in time before the lung-tissues are wasted, it is guaranteed a radical cure! Equally certain in all scrofulous affections and blood disorders. Large bottles, one dollar, of any druggist.

A Train Purposely Wrecked.

Battle Creek, Mich., July 16.—Passenger train No. 6 on the Chicago and Grand Trunk railroad was wrecked at Austin Hill, just west of this city, at 3 o'clock this morning. Fireman Thomas Crow was thrown from the engine, his neck was broken and he died instantly. Engineer Miller was badly cut about the head and face. Brakeman Mitchell, Conductor Bishop and Baggageman Adams were severely cut and bruised, but their injuries are not fatal. The following passengers were hurt: Robert W. Luyel, bruised hips: Carl Bencon, Annapolis, Mo., back injured and face cut; Nic Kuehn, Chicago, gash on head; H. S. Gaskill, mail agent on car, bruised; James Keefe, Chicago, right knee hurt; Chris Grimes, cut on knee.

There is no doubt that the disaster was the result of a deliberate plot to wreck the train and kill the people on it. The bolts were removed from the fish plates which held the rails together and the plates were taken from the rails. The train was coming down the grade and was running fast when it left the track and jumped into the ditch. The trucks of the pullman cars were forced off the track and the coaches were badly damaged.

Two Good Snake Stories.

A Nippenose Valley man had climbed a cherry tree for the purpose of picking cherries was surprised when he heard the whirr of a rattle snake 20 feet from the ground. The snake was wrapped around the limb and the warning rattle saved the cherry picker from being bitten as he was about to grasp the limb around which the snake was coiled.

In Nittany Valley a few days ago carpenters were at work repairing a barn. One of the men was climbing up the inside of the structure and when eighteen feet from the floor placed his hand on a timber and was bitten by a house snake which was resting itself there. The snake sank its fangs into his wrist, but a prompt application of indigo and turpentine prevented serious results.

In Very Hard Luck.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., July 16.—Last night William Gardner broke into the safe of his uncle, John H. Law, and stole several hundred dollars. He then fled with his sweetheart, Bertie Walters, but was overtaken on the outskirts of the city by her big brother, who detained the girl and administered a trouncing to her lover.

Gardner was last seen aboard a train with Chicago as his destination. The chiefs of police of the Western cities have been notified to arrest him.

Well Settled Drouth.

A well settled drouth of staying qualities is now on us, and, while it has been favorable to harvesting, is having a bad effect upon the growing crops. Farmers complain that the corn and potatoes are suffering severely, and that the young clover is nearly dried up, making the prospect for next year's hay crop very poor. While the continuous dry spell is bad enough, there is another reason for complaint in the shape of grasshoppers, which insects are doing much damage to the barley and oats. Great swarms of these pests can be seen in the fields in that section of the county, and their eating propensities is causing much loss to the farmer. There has been no rain for over two weeks.

"Fat Doctor Bills Make Lean Wills,"

but Dr. Sages Catarrh Remedy costs less than one doctor's visit. Catarrh is a loathsome, dangerous disease, and the time has come when to suffer from it is a disgrace. No person of culture and refinement cares to inflict upon his friends his offensive breath, disgusting hawking and spitting and disagreeable efforts to breathe freely and clear the throat and nose—hence the cultured and refined use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. And no wise and prudent man cares to run the risk of leaving his family without a protector, by letting his "slight catarrh" run into serious or fatal throat and lung troubles, hence the wise and prudent use Dr. Sages Catarrh Remedy. The proprietors of this remedy are so confident of its curative properties, that they have made a standing offer of a reward of $500 for a case they cannot cure.

Fire in Sugar Valley.

The steam saw and planing mill of Benjamin N. Swenck in Sugar Valley was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. Some sawed lumber piled near the mill was also burned. The mill is situated about three miles east of the borough of Loganton. The citizens residing in the vicinity of the mill turned out and with buckets prevented the destruction of all the lumber in the yards. The mill was in operation when the fire broke out. There is no insurance.

Hicks Protests.

Irl R. Hicks, the weather prophet, after the newspapers of the land have given publicity to his prophecies and brought him renown, wants a corner on the weather, or that part of it embraced in his prophecies. He has now taken the precaution to copyright the entire issue of his paper and has given notice that no one may reprint the forecasts as issued by him. He claims that the continued reprinting of these forecasts, month after month, in many publications, has worked great injury to his business, and for this reason was forced to protect his interests.

FASHIONS AT SARATOGA.

Travelling Cloaks; Breakfast Dresses Luncheons; Parasols; Waists; Hair-Dressing.

All classes are represented in the gay throngs frequenting Saratoga; from the daily toiler whose slender income is systematically expended with a view to the yearly recreation, to the gouty old millionaire seeking to atone for past excesses in the healthful waters of this remarkable resort. Travelling attire is this season confined to black surah silk cloaks; either with three capes or shirred yokes, golf cloaks with hoods and linings of brilliantly colored plaid silk, or ordinary "tailor suits," which are adapted to various purposes.

MORNING TOILETS

at Saratoga depend somewhat upon projected excursions, for which occasions, dresses escaping the ground are most popular; but for piazza use, dimities trimmed with lace and ribbon, chine' ginghams, sometimes with hats and parasols to match, colored lappetts trimmed with black satin or velvet, striped percales, linen suits with their various colored collars, an army of independent waists worn with black or colored skirts, crepons, light silks, silk ginghams; in short every material from cheap prints to brocaded silks, made in every imaginable style, and worn by every variety of human being, are seen during breakfast hours on the verandas of the largest hotels. Lovely silk, crepon, challi or silk crape gowns, ornamented on the shoulders with lace, so deep in some cases as to fall almost to the waist, and confined by white or colored moire sashes or belts, or half-tight black and white checked silk costumes, with black moire bows and sashes, or pink and white or blue and checked wools, combined with white albatross, are donned by those indolent fair ones, who make the piazza a resting-place for some hours after the morning meal.

THE MOST ELEGANT

toilettes of the day are worn at evening entertainments, or on afternoon drives; and it is noticeable that many hats and costumes now harmonize, which was not case earlier in the season. Luncheons are informal, any pretty costumes being appropriate, and one sent up for a very recherche affair at a private house, from the well-known establishment of Lord & Taylor, is of pale yellow organdy, over yellow silk, with a six-inch ruffle and row of insertion around the skirt. The slightly pointed waist, outlined by a narrow black velvet belt, has a very full round yoke of organdy and lace, over yellow silk edged by a narrow white lace ruffle; sleeves double puffs, reaching below the elbow, and tied between by black velvet; black velvet bows without ends on the shoulders and belt at left side, from which a wide piece of bias velvet is folded gracefully across to the right shoulder.

AFTERNOON DRIVES.

display not only beautiful costumes, but hats and parasols as well, and those of pink or white chiffon, largely made up of ruffles and puffs, white pongee silk embroidered in sprays, point lace, mixtures black and white lace, striped or checked parasols, (not unfrequently with waists to match) shade hats on which flowers, ribbon and white or colored illusion are grouped with exquisite taste and skill, Pink or white mull hats, with blackbirds nestling among fold or puffs, give an additional proof that a touch of black is still necessary. Great variety is brouht about in evening wear, by colored or black chiffon waists over colored linings, or checked silk skirt and sleeves with full, black chiffon waist.

FLUFFINESS

is still the essential point of hair dressing, and white evening coiffures are always high, the figure 8 or braided coils, give finish to round hats, which are this season peculiarly severe. The Psyche knot is no longer universal; its place being supplied by puffs or loose knots, with the addition of small combs instead of pins.

VERONA CLARKE.

O, woman, despairing and wretched,
Dreading, yet longing to die,
Hear the glad chorus that rises,
Filling the dome of the sky:
"Sisters, be glad, there's help to be had:
No longer be miserable, gloomy and sad;
Lost health regain," rings out the refrain,
"Poor creatures, be healthy and happy again."

How? By taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the world's greatest remedy for all kinds of diseases peculiar to women. It brings back tone and vigor to the system weakened by those distressing complaints known only to women, which makes life such a burden. It restores relaxed organs to a normal condition. It fortifies the system against the approach of diseases which often terminate in untold misery, if not in death—which is preferable to the pain and torment of living, in many instances. It is the great gift of scientific skill and research to women, and for it she cannot be too grateful. It cures her ills when nothing else can. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or price ($1.00) returned. Absolutely sold on trial!

HEALTHY CHILDREN

come from healthy mothers. And mothers will certainly be healthy if they'll take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Nothing can equal it in building up a woman's strength, in regulating and assisting all her natural functions, and in putting in perfect order every part of the female system. It lessens the pains and burdens of child-bearing, supports and strengthens weak, nursing mothers, and promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment.

It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and bracing nervine, and a guaranteed remedy for women's ills and ailments. In every chronic "female complaint" or weakness, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

AN UNUSUAL OFFER—the one that's made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Unusual, but made in good faith. It's a reward of $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh. What offer could be fairer?

His Deputies are Active.

Philadelphia Times: The returns from the revenue collectors of the state have not been very encouraging to the government officials, every district reporting a big falling off until Collector Grant Herring's district, the twelfth, was heard from. His proved to be the only one to equal last year's collections, being $25,000 ahead, while the others saw from $5,00,000 to $500,000 behind last year. Mr. Herring's collections ran up to $715,869.76, which is due to the extra efforts made by his deputies and office clerks in getting in the special taxes. Of the specials $89,000 were collected, the largest ever known in the history of the district. This is a flattering record for Mr. Herring, and under the government's plan of remunerating the collectors of that district, will bring his salary up to $4,250 per year, within $250 of the highest revenue salary in the state.

In connection with the above it is not out of place to state that J. F. Brosius, the deputy of this district, has received a letter from Collector Herring, in which that official very cordially commends Mr. Brosius for the energy and activity he has displayed in his collections.

Experience The Best Teacher.

The great value of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in curing diseases of the blood, particularly the ills of women, has again been demonstrated. Mrs. W. J. Anderson, of Bruyn St., Kingston, N. Y., in speaking of her experience says: "I was an awful sufferer from troubles common to my sex, was reduced to 70 lbs; four physicians prescribed for me, but I kept growing worse. Until I began the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy I never knew a well day. By its use I grew stronger, the pain less frequent, until it entirely disappeared. I now weigh 125 lbs, and am a well woman. I must know a dozen women who suffered similarly and have been cured by its use."

Favorite Remedy affords great protection from attacks that originate in change of life. Daughters would not grow up sickly if they would use this woman helper, Favorite Remedy.

COUNTERFEITERS SENTENCE.

Harvey Keith Gets Two Years in the Penitentiary.

Harvey W. Keith was sent to the penitentiary on Saturday for two years by Judge Buffington in the United States district court, at Pittsburg. Keith was arrested for passing a number of $2 and $5 bills in Clearfield county, in October, 1892. On May 16, 1893, he pleaded nolo contendere, but sentence was suspended. Recently the secret service officials at Washington learned that Keith had been passing counterfeit money in Blair county, and they instructed District Attorney Hall to call the defendant for sentence.

The secret service officials got their information from Melvin A. Smith, who is now in the penitentiary for counterfeiting at Altoona. Smith said during his trial that Keith had furnished him with money to take to Indiana. When Keith was called on Saturday, he denied that he had ever given Smith any money, and he submitted a large number of affidavits from prominent citizens of Altoona, recommending him to the mercy of the court.

Louis C. Statler, convicted some time ago in the United States district court of counterfeiting at Altoona, was called for sentence on Saturday. His attorney, T. B. Alcorn, asked for a stay of judgment but Judge Buffington was not disposed to grant it, and sentenced Statler to the penitentiary for thirteen months.

Mr. Alcorn then made a motion for a writ of error, which was allowed, and a supersedeas granted. The case will now go to the United States supreme court upon the question of law as to whether or not a verdict of "guilty of having counterfeit money in possession" without finding an intent to defraud constitutes the crime of which the defendant was convicted.

Statler's bail was renewed, and he came to his home in Altoona pending a decision from the United States supreme court.

Looking for His Son.

John F. Potter, Esq., of Bellefonte, returned here Saturday from Cross Forks, whither he had gone to learn whether the young man found in the woods with his throat cut was his son. Mr. Potter states that his son has been missing from his boarding house at Cross Forks for five weeks. He went out of the house one day as usual, said nothing about going away and left all his clothing, trunk, writing material, etc., in his room as though he expected to come back again. Since that time nothing has been heard of him. Mr. Potter says that the actions and stories of some of those around the house are rather mystifying and contradictory. He was not able, however, to reach the locality where the young man was found dead from Cross Forks, and will have to go around by another route. He says that he at Bellefonte nor any one at Cross Forks has not heard from his son since he left the latter place.—Saturday's Lock Haven Democrat

DYNAMITE HORROR.

Every Member of a Gang of Miners Killed.

Hazelton, July 17.—The most horrible accident which has ever occurred about the mine in this region took place at No. 8 Stockton mine this morning. Two hundred sticks of dynamite exploded among a crowd of men who were preparing to go to their day's work. All of these unfortunates were scattered and torn to pieces. The exact number killed is not positively known at this writing, but it is placed between eight and 11.

The true cause of the explosion will never be known, as none of the men in the gang of workmen survive. It occurred at about 7 o'clock. The men were descending the slope at the time and distributing themselves in the various chambers and gangways where they are employed at the bottom of the slope.

Charles O'Donnell, who looked after the explosives and supplies of the leaders and other company workmen, was busy dealing out dynamite and caps to the leaders and starters. The latter came to him in groups usually, and between eight and 10 of those workmen were standing about him at the time.

The driver boys who had come down earlier had already passed in the mule-way and were cleaning and harnessing their teams in the stable which is built in Wharton gangway, about 100 yards from the bottom of the slope. These boys were the only persons who were in the vicinity at the time, and the first intimation of an accident they received was the terrific report of the explosion.

The concussion was so severe as to knock the mules and drivers about in the stable. The place was filled with dust and flying debris. All lights were extinguished. The men were demoralized for the time, and did not know which way to turn. Although the explosion took place 300 yards below the surface, the shock was felt over an area of surface extending to the lumber yard three miles south, and in the adjoining mines, No 2 Steckton.

From this latter mine a rescuing party rushed through subterranean passage ways to No. 8. As these men approached the bottom of the ill-fated slope they came up with the drivers and other laborers groping about in the darkness. Pushing forward toward the bottom they came upon a scene which baffles description.

Huge timber were twisted and torn and scattered about promiscuously. Rocks and debris was everywhere. Over all was strewn human flesh, legs and arms of the unfortunate victims, and from the jagged sides hung two shattered bodies. Not one of the several bodies was left sufficiently intact to permit identity.

Utah as a State.

Washington, July 17.—The signing of the Utah bill for statehood by President Cleveland today closes one of the most remarkable contests in American politics. The territory has been an applicant for statehood, and really eligible in population and wealth for many years. It has formed the only break in the string of states that stretches from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans. The struggle over polygamy, and the Mormon church has defferred its admission until the present time.

President Harrison in 1892 issued a proclamation giving amnesty to all Mormons convicted of polygamy, and President Cleveland today completed the final step in the preliminary progress toward statehood.

According to the operations of the enabling act it will devolve upon the president in November or December of 1895, to issue a proclamation formally admitting Utah into the union. One remarkable feature in the latter stages of the contest has been the unanimity with which the two great political parties have acted in favor of admission. Neither party now knows which will gain it when a state.

When You Visit The Sick.

Always when visiting a sick person endeavor to sit where the invalid may see you without making an effort to do so. Under any circumstances it is always more satisfactory to see the person to whom one is talking; and nothing is more fatiguing to an invalid than to be obliged to twist into an uncomfortable position in order to see the visitor. The good effect of the most cherry talk will be nullified by the fatigue of the effort. And don't speak of depressing subjects; above all, refrain from talking of similar cases that you have known or heard of, unless by doing so you can make the sufferer more hopeful. Tell all the bright, cheery things you can, retain pleasant bits of news; but don't stay too long, even though urged to remain.—From "Salvation;" Demorest's Magazine for August.

DEBS BEHIND PRISONBARS.

The Strike Leaders and His Cabinet Go to Jail Last Night.

Chicago, July 17.—There was a sensational climax late this afternoon to the troubles that have disturbed railroad circles west of the Allegheny mountains during the past three weeks when President Eugene V. Debs, of the American Railway Union, and his cabinet, Vice President George A. Howard, General Secretary Sylvester Kelliher, and L. W. Rogers Chairman of the Executive Committee were taken to the county jail and incarcerated as prisoners of the United States for violation of the injunction issued on July 2 by Judges Woods and Groscup, restraining them from combining and conspiring to hinder inter-state commerce traffic or the movement of United States mails. The imprisonment of the chiefs of the new railway union was not in any sense arbitrary proceedings. Although predicated upon which the court regarded as an open and defiant violation of orders previously issued from its jurisdiction an opportunity was afforded to the defendants of presenting bonds for their appearance in court a week hence. This proposition, however, was rejected on the ground, as emphasized by Presiden tDebs after the court had referred its ultimatum and the principal involved was one entirely too serious in its nature to admit of the defendants availing themselves of any technicalities that might be regarded as loop holes in the laws. Bondsmen almost without limit offered their aid and support to the union leaders, but their overtures were declined in a firm, although courteous manner, and the prisoners suffered themselves to be taken to jail and locked up. There, unless in the meantime they should tire of the incarceration, they will remain until Monday morning of next week.

Watsontown Forging Ahead.

Watsontown, July 16.—The borough of Watsontown to-day voted to increase their bonded debt from $6,400 at 5 per cent. to $10,000 at 4 per cent. by issuing thirty year bonds. The project carried by a majority of 120. The new bonds will be issued at once, the old holders agreeing to make an even exchange, the surplus bonds being already engaged except a few hundred dollars. The streets will be improved and it is quite likely arc lights will be introduced to light the entire town.

McMullen—Smith.

At eight o'clock on Tuesday evening, at the residence of the bride in Milesburg, by the Rev. J. B. Soule, of the Baptist church, Mr. James McMullen and Mrs. Theressa Smith were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of over one hundred guests. An elegant wedding supper was served after the usual shower of congratulations had been tendered. During the evening the happy couple were tendered three different serenades.

GETTING BACK INTO OLD LINES.

All of the Railroad Companies Will Run as Usual This Week.

Chicago, July 15.—Railroad officials devoted their attention almost exclusively yesterday in getting their traffic departments back into the old lines of doing business. The Rock Island, which had dispensed with the entire forces in its general offices during the strike, notified its men yesterday to report for duty on Monday morning. The Milwaukee and St. Paul, which led the way in the general suspension of office business, will put all its men back to work on Tuesday. All the other roads will resume their usual routine to day.

Saturday was pay day on the Rock Island, and the office of the paymaster, on the third floor of the Van Buren street building, was besieged by an eager crowd. The Chicago and Northwestern also paid off its men. Its pay car stood in the yard west of the Wells street depot. A company of regulars was posted close by.

The strikers at Pullman will remain firm, notwithstanding the position of the American Railway union and the General Managers' association, and announce that they expect, to win, despite the apparent defeat of the present, believing that the public is still with them in their fight against the Pullman Palace Car company.

Samuel Meyers, secretary of the Pullman grievance committee, said yesterday: "We are not disconcerted in the least, although we had expected to win our fight with the assistance of the railroad men of the country in tying up the railroads. The situation will now probably stand as it did before the railroad men came to our assistance."

The transit department of the stock yards resumed business Saturday morning with practically a full force of men. Thirty seven non-union switchmen marched into the yards at 7 o'clock, and the work of clearing the congested tracks was begun in earnest. The work is being done under the protection of 100 policemen and a military guard. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy brought in 211 car loads of live stock, and the Rock Island fifteen cars, the other roads almost their full quota. Two hundred cars of live stock were also sent east. Not much killing is done in Packingtown on Saturdays, and the packers claim to have all the men they need to handle the business.

The first break in the military on guard in the stock yards' district was made on Saturday afternoon, when the Chicago Hussars, under Captain Brand and Lieutenant Thomas Quinlan, were relieved of [illegible] who have taken the place of strikers, were assaulted yesterday morning while on their way to work, but none of them seriously hurt.

The great boycott which began on June 26 last has cut up to date seventeen lives in this city and vicinity and not less than $3,500,000 worth of railroad property, while dozen of men have been arrested.

Apart from the indictment and arrest of President Debs, Vice Present Howard Secretary Kelliher, Director Rodgers and others of the American Railway union, numerous arrests have been made by troops and deputy United States marshals during the strike. Some of the prisoners have obtained bail, while others are locked up.

Nearing The Grave.

In old age infirmities and weakness hasten to close the gap between us and the grave. Happily scientific research and pharmacol skill have allied themselves in furnishing us a reliable means of ameliorating the ailments incident to declining years, and of renewing waning physical energy. Its name is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a widely comprehensive remedy in disease, and an inestimable blessing to the elderly, the feeble and the convalescent. Rheumatic ailments, trouble with the kidneys and lumbago are among the more common ailments of the aged. These are effectually counteracted by the Bitters, which is likewise a prevention and curative of malarial complaints, dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness. It is highly promotive of appetite, sleep and the acquisition of vigor.

Fatal Wound Inflicted by his Father.

Brooklyn, N. Y. July 15.—Daniel Hagan, 19 years old, is in the Norwegian hospital with a fractured skull, the result of a blow given him by his father early this morning. Late last night Daniel came home drunk. His abused his father, who could not retaliate, as the son is much larger and stronger than he. After Daniel had threatened his father harm, he went into his bedroom and went sleep on the floor. After he had been asleep for several hours, the old man crept in and struck him over the head with a piece of iron pipe, fracturing his sukll. He then left the house and has not yet been arrested. Daniel was taken to the hospital and will probably die.

Col. Clark,

U. S. Army writes: For the last two years, my health has been excellent: this, I think, is due to my using Sulphur Bitters, as formerly my health was miserable, owing to the frequent changes of climate, etc., so incident to a soldier's life.

Estimated Revenue of the Income Tax.

Washington, July 15.—Investigations made by T. Worthington C. Ford, chief of the bureau of statistics of the treasury department, led him to conclude that the "possible" revenue under the income tax provision of the tariff bill, will range from $12,000,000 at the lowest point to $30,000,000 at the highest point. This is the opening statement of a compilation he has made of the probable results of the bill, to which is attached some complex tables bearing on the subject. "I also conclude," he says, "that in the first year of its operation the lowest rather than the highest possibility will be attained."

STILL REFUSES TO ARBITRATE.

The Pullman Company Rejects the Overtures of the Mayor.

Chicago, July 11.—The Pullman company has rejected the kindly overtures of the mayors of fifty of the leading cities of the country, and still refuses to arbitrate. At 4 o'clock this afternoon Mayor Hazen S. Pingree, of Detroit, accompanied by Mayor John S. Hopkins, of Chicago, and Erskine M. Phelps, of the extensive boot and shoe firm of Phelps, Dodge & Palmer of this city, called at the Pullman building Mayor Pingree carried with him telegrams from fifty mayors calling upon the Pullman company, in the name of peace and good citizenship, to submit its differences with its employes to arbitration and at once end the disastrous strike.

There were present at the conference on behalf of the Pullman company, Vice President Wickes, General Manager Brown and Chief Counsel John S. Runnels. Mayor Pingree presented the telegrams he had received from all parts of the county, and in a manner most earnest urged that the Pullman campany accede to the expressed wish of the people and at once submit all matters in question between itself and its employes to arbitration. He pointed out the disastrous conditions which had already resulted from the strike and the results which seem inevitable unless it was settled.

The officials of the company, on the other hand, denied responsibility and repeated the oft-reiterated statement that there was nothing to arbitrate. They declared that the works had for a long time previous to the strike been run at a loss and if they were again put in operation it could only be at further loss. They declared, in conclusion, "that the question at issue, which was simply that of reopening the works and carrying on the business at a ruinous loss, was not a proper subject for arbitration." The conference ended with emphatic decision of the officers of the company and the party of peacemakers withdrew.

A Head End Collision.

Louisville, July 15.—A passenger train south bound on the Louisville and Nashville, and a freight train north bound, came together in a head end collision at Colesburg, Ky., last night. Both engines were wrecked and Engineer Frank Dudley, of this city, was killed and Fireman McCormick slightly injured. None of the passengers were hurt, though badly shaken up. The accident was the result of a misunderstanding of orders on the part of the dead engineer.

General Gordon's Patriotism.

Pittsburg, July 15.—General John B. Gordon, the ex-Confederate veteran and senator from Georgia, said to a party of Pittsburg men on Friday, among whom were Congressman Dalzell and General A. L. Pearson: "I am commander-in-chief of the Confederate union, which is an organization of Confederate veterans similar to the Grand Army of the Republic. If occasion require it, I will march an army of old soldiers across the Long bridge over the Potomac greater than ever General Lee commanded, every man of whom will fight to death to preserve the Union and command respect to the old flag."

The BEST newspaper is always the CHEAPEST. That the Pittsburg Dispatch is the best newspaper between New York and Chicago, everybody knows.

MRS. IDA CASLER.

Her Advice to Over-Ambitious Women.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Mrs. Ida Casler, of 126 Olive Street, Syracuse, N.Y., believes that there is no amount of money large enough to equal a good, sound, healthy constitution.

Here is a history of her case:—

She was so ill with falling of the womb and leucorrhœa that she could not stand. She was attended by several doctors without benefit, and was completely discouraged.

One evening she heard what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, and decided to try it, together with Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and it is well she did, for she says:—

"I am now well and strong. I am not troubled with either trouble, and all owing to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"If more women would use the Compound there would be less suffering in the world. Many women bring on their troubles by over-work. Remember good health will outbid riches every time."

PANIC AT A PICNIC.

There Was an Exciting Time at a Picnic Near Hazleton.

Hazleton, Pa., July 15—While attending a picnic at Landmesser's park last night, Mike Roeman, an Italian, was knocked down on the dancing floor. Givanna Perna, a countryman, instantly drew his revolver. The platform was then crowded with men and women who were forming to take part in the dance. Perna fired point blank at Benjamin Fancock, the ball hitting him in the neck. The dancers broke into a panic. Perna, thinking he was about to be attacked, began firing right and left, emptying his revolver of five bullets. It is known that ten persons were wounded. As far as can be learned their names are Benjamin Fancock, shot in the neck; Clifford Minnick, shot in the thigh; T. Williams, colored, shot in the leg; J. Matthews, shot in the leg; William Blakeland, shot in the knee; a 15 year old boy named Cook was shot in the side and an unknown woman was shot in the hip.

As Perna reached the exit a crowd of frenzied men sprang upon him and kicked and clubbed him without mercy. The cry of "lynch him" was heard and taken up immediatel. Messengers went in search of a rope and the threat would have been carried out but for the timely arrival of a constable accompanied by a number of cooler headed citizens. The mob, however, fought against giving up the prisoner, and before the officer succeeded in reaching him he was nearly kicked to death. The prisoner was given a hearing today and held in $1,000 bail.

Foster's Prediction

St. Joseph, Mo., July 14.—My bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from the 12th to the 16th, and the next storm will reach the Pacific coast about the 17th, cross the western mountains by the close of the 18th, the great central valleys from the 19th to 21st and the eastern states about the 22nd.

The principal feature of the disturbance will be the extensive rain it will cause, but it will still leave many places short on rainfall and poorly prepared to meet the August drouth.

The warm wave will cross the western mountains about the 17th, the great central valleys about the 19th, and the eastern states about the 21st. The cool wave will cross the western mountains about the 20th, the great central valleys about the 22d and the eastern states about the 24th.

The fifth principal storm wave of July will reach the Pacific coast about the 23d, cross the western mountains by close of 24th, the great central valleys from 25th to 27th and the eastern states about 28th. This disturbance will inaugurate a heated term that will become very oppressive during the last part of August.

The warm wave will cross the western mountains about the 23d, the great central valleys about the 25th and the eastern states about the 27th. The cool wave will cross the western mountains about the 26th, the great central valleys about the 28th and the eastern states about the 30th.

—Everybody is now wishing for a good rain.

—This hot and dry weather is proving very destructive to the berry crop.

—Oh, but isn't this hot weather? The mercery is playing up around the hundred mark all the time.

—The Bellefonte band on Tueday evening tendered a charming serenade to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hull.

—The Fallon house, of Lock Haven, has been designated as the League hotel for the members of the U. L. A. W.

—Mill Hall was visited by hundreds of persons on Sunday, all anxious to view the ruins of Friday's disastrous blaze.

—The first of the series of Atlantic City excursions over the Central railroad and Reading system will be run on July 26th.

—The corrected time table of the Bellefonte Central railroad company appears in today's issue. Read it, and keep posted as to how the trains run on this road.

—Twenty-five young folks picniced at Hecla on Monday. Mr. Gephart says they already have applications from picnic parties to take up three to four days a week.

—On Monday night the large plug in the water main on High street was blown entirely out. This morning an iron plug was put in instead and now Supt. Ryan says he will guarantee it to stand.

—Five wagon loads of gypsies passed through Bellefonte this morning. We have not heard if they have camped in any of the adjacent woods or not, but it is more than likely they have, as all traveling bands do.

—Gen. Beaver has been appointed by Chairman Gilkeson committeeman-at-large and George W. Hoover the regular committeeman from Centre county for the Republican State Committee for the campaign of 1894.

—The commission appointed to form a new township from parts of Boggs and Snow Shoe townships will meet for that purpose next Monday. It is composed of Messrs. Jesse Cleaver, John Hoy, Jr., and John Holmes.

—The Methodists of Bellefonte will picnic at Clintondale this year on Thursday, July 26th. As usual, our Methodist brethren expect to take a large crowd with them. They will have the Bellefonte band along to furnish the necessary music.

—The town council of the borough of Mill Hall have appealed to Governor Pattison, and through him to the people of the state, for aid for the sufferers by the fire last Friday. Contributions should be sent to George W. Hall, president of council, Mill Hall, Pa.

—Mr. James C. Williams, of Philipsburg, received a letter yesterday announcing the serious and perhaps fatal illness of his sister, Mrs. Deborah Ingram, who is with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Mapes, at Atcheson, Kansas. One result of her illness is to render her totally blind. She is past 80 years of age and a native of Bellefonte.

—A new exchange is The Valley Wave, edited and published by our friend, Ross L. Williams, at Mahafley. It is a newsy, spicy little paper, and deserves to succeed. The terms of subscription as announced are five cents a wave or fifty cents a billow, which means of course, that fifty waves make a billow, or a year's subscription. Long may Ross' billow wave.

—Rev. Samuel Creighton, a Methodist clergyman who was formerly pastor of the Pine street church in Williamsport, but whose health failed while he was in active ministerial work, is now residing on a beautiful farm near Mackeyville, Clinton county. His health is entirely recovered. Fishing creek flows through his broad acres, and the reverend gentleman is able to take from the stream all the trout that he cares to consume. He will soon again resume pastoral work.

THE WATER QUESTION.

The Supply Inadequate to the Increased Demand.

The water question in Bellefonte is at present a much-mooted subject in Bellefonte owing to the fact that the supply is becoming entirely inadequate to the constantly increasing demand for it. By the fact that the supply is limited, we do not mean that the big spring is giving out or anything of that sort, but we mean that for the amount of water used, and for the much larger amount wasted by the consumers of Bellefonte borough, the facilities for carrying the water throughout the town are not adequate to the enormons demands made upon the system. The large pump at the water works is kept running night and day, and it has a capacity of 1,500,000 gallons every 24 hours. In addition to this the water wheel is also kept running and it is safe to say that a good million and a half gallons of water are used by Bellefonters every day during this warm, dry weather. The borough has a population of four thousand and thus the consumption of water is on a basis of about four hundred gallons per day for every man, woman and child in the town. Of course it is a well known fact that three-fourths of the consumers do not use even one-fourth of the above amount, then the only conclusion to arrive at is that the other one-fourth are exceedingly extravagant in their use of the water.

Of course, it is an undisputed fact that when a man pays water tax for the use of water, he feels at liberty to use just what he wants, and in one way this seems a position well taken. But some people do not stop to discriminate between the amount actually needed and the amount over and above wantonly wasted. And this latter has become so great that families living on the higher places in the borough, namely, East Linn and Curtin streets, are without water more than they have it. These people pay their taxes as well as others and their rights should be considered just the same.

Now, if the people in the lower parts of the borough continue to persist in using so much water, there is just one remedy left open to the borough authorities, and that is to increase the supply facilities. This can only be done by putting in a new main from the water works to the reservoir, and from the reservoir out Allegheny street; and it may also be necessary to increase the pumping facilities. In order to do this considerable money would be required and the outcome would be an increase of the water tax to just about double what it now is. Do the people want this? Are they willing to pay the increased tax to have an unlimited supply of water? If so, they are on a pretty sure way of getting it. But, until such a condition of things is brought about everybody who lives on the lower streets should have consideration for those having homes on the higher places and when they use water, do it with discretion, and not with wanton waste, leaving the pipes full enough to carry some, at least, to the extreme points.

THE WATER QUESTION.

A Letter of Explanation from Mr. Shortlidge.

We herewith publish a letter addressed by ex-Councilman Shortlidge to Councilman Brockerhoff in reply to the latter's resolution in council last Monday evening relative to the use of water by McCalmont & Co.

Mr. Shortlidge's letter sheds the true light on McCalmont & Co.'s use of water; which shows that the resolution of council was premature as well as a strained effort to find fault.

It is evident to us that the scarcity of water is caused by the indiscriminate and profligate waste and if the council would turn their attention to stop the waste at the bung hole instead of at the spigots as there is an ample supply pumped, and more too; hence it will be well for the council to heed the suggestions made by Mr. Shortlidge instead of finding fault with the trying to prevent the legitimate use of water.

The town advertises to the world and advises people to come here, and gives as one of the main reasons, that we live in a healthy community because we have an unlimited supply of pure water—at the same time, the council advertises to the world their inability to supply a sufficient quantity for the necessary use of the people already here.

Certainly the council, if fully comprehending the exact situation of affairs, and we believe they do, are failing to apply the proper remedies.

Bellefonte, July 18, 1894.

Henry Brockerhoff, Esq.,

Dear Sir:—In pursuance of your motion in the Town Council at its last meeting to notify McCalmont & company not to sprinkle their streets with fire hose—allow me to explain to you that McCalmont & Co. do not make a business of sprinkling the streets at the coal yard with a fire hose or any other hose.

In the first place, about two weeks ago, sparks from one of the Bellefonte Central railroad locomotives set fire to an old tree on our premises near the blacksmith shop, as well as to the roof of the Redding houses adjacent to our buildings. Our men attached the hose to our fire plug, turned on the water and extinguished the fire without giving any alarm. On Saturday after the Mill Hall fire, Mr. McCalmont, not knowing whether the defective spark had been arrested or not, took the precaution to have the roofs wet, which had been on fire previous and did the same thimg on Monday. It is probable that the employee was not careful as he might have been, and allowed some of the water to fall on the streets near by. I think it was entirely proper, that this precautionary step should have been taken—I was taught when a boy, that prevention is better than cure and a small quantity of water to prevent a fire is much more economical than the use of a larger quantity to extinguish it. I desire to say to you, that I exercise all the care necessary to prevent any undo waste of water; and as a further proof of this claim, I invite the most rigid inspection of all the hydrants and spigots owned by McCalmont & Co. or by its individual members; and more especially do I desire a comparison of the waste of water by McCalmont & Co. as compared to that from the hydrants and spigots owned and controlled by the Brockerhoff estate. I am very sure that if the same attention is given by the members or the town council to the water wasted by the people generally, that is given to the water consumed by McCalmont & Co., there will be no cause of complaint on account of the deficiency in the supply in the higher portions of our town. McCalmont & Co. never allow water to be wasted. They do not open hydrants or spigots for the purpose of keeping up a cool supply in summer nor do they open the same to keep them from freezing during the winter. Can the Brockerhoff estate say as much? I would suggest that the members of the town council, who have been giving so much attention to McCalmont & Co. turn their attention to stopping the leaks in the mains and service pipes, as well as prevent the continuous streams of water that are turned on for the purpose of supplying cool water at this time. When they reduce their reckles waste to a minimum, they will find that there is now being pumped from three to four times as much water as is actually needed to supply the actual wants of consumers of our town.

Yours very respectfully,

Wm. Shortlidge.

A Double Affliction.

Last Thursday Mr. John F. Potter, in response to telegrams giving description of a young man found dead in Potter county and who was supposed to be his son, George, went to Cross Forks to find out if possible if it was correct. The only facts Mr. Potter found out were that his son was in the employ of the Lackawanna Lumber Company, and that he had gone away from his boarding place in Cross Forks some five or six weeks previous and had not been heard of since. As Cross Forks was fully a hundred miles from Olean, where the body was found, with no railroad connection, Mr. Potter was unable to go there to ascertain beyond a doubt if the dead man was his son. He therefore concluded to come home and go around another route.

Mr. Potter says that had he remained at Cross Forks until the next train left he would not have reached home before Monday, but something seemed to tell him he must get home on Saturday and, consequently, he walked across the mountain from that place to the P. & E. road, on Friday night, a distance of eighteen miles, and through a very unfrequented section of country finally reaching Lock Haven during the day and coming to his home in Milesburg at 5 o'clock Saturday evening. On his arrival home he was shocked to find his youngest child, aged seventeen months, and who was well when he left home, dead, the child having died suddenly sometime on Saturday. Mr. Potter seems to be having a hard stroke of misfortune and his friends and neighbors deeply sympathize with him and his family.

Mill Hall.

Mill Hall was visited by many people on Sunday who were anxious to view the destruction the fire had wrought. It is estimated that about 2,000 visitors were at the borough during the day.

On Monday more evidences of activity were noticeable in the burned out families moving to temporary places of abode. Freeman Brady put up a shed, in which his family will reside until he secures a building, He will commence rebuilding in a short time. A. T. Mann is pushing operations on his new row of brick buildings in the upper end of the town. W. H. Mann and several other families will move into these houses as soon as they can be made habitable. W. H. Mann contemplates erecting a handsome residence on the burned site. Dr. McCloskey and D. H. Stiner will begin repairing their partly burned structures at once. Sylvester Brady, Joseph Bartholomew and George Bressler will rebuild at once, lumber having already been ordered for their buildings. F. M. Welch will probably sell his lots and Freeman Brady may possible sell one or two of his lots.

A number of families have requested permission to occupy the churches. Whether they will be allowed the privilege or not has not been determined.

The meeting of council and citizens, announced for Saturday evening, was postponed.

The fact that the fire occurred on Friday, and on the 13th of the month, both of which day and name is unlucky, impresses many of the citizens with the belief that there may be something of truth in the old superstition.

Miss Jennie Schermerhon, of Clearfield, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tripple, on East Lamb street.

THE FIRE AT MILL HALL.

Further Particulars of Fryday's Big Conflagration.

The fire at Mill Hall Friday, says the Lock Haven Democrat, covered the district from the alley between Main and Water streets over to the Central railroad and from the post office building to Dr. McCloskey's drug store. Never did a conflagration with its fiery tongue clean up a burned territory better. The buildings, poles, trees, boardwalks and gardens are all gone. Only a small portion of the brick walls of the Disciple church and of W. H. Mann's residence remain standing and these have been pulled down by the firemen. On the upper limit of the burned districts stand the partly burned residence of Dr. McCloskey on the one side of Main street and the building of D. H. Stoner on the other side.

THEY SPREAD RAPIDLY.

When the alarm was given at 12.10 o'clock and it was ascertained that the fire was in Welsh's stable, no serious apprehension was felt by the community, and many men ran to assist in removing the contents of the stable. But as the flames communicated to the houses adjoining, and as the strong wind was carrying sparks to buildings a short distance away from the burning stable, the citizens suddenly realized that a disastrous conflagration was imminent. Then, too, the knowledge of the fact that there was no fire apparatus came upon them with redoubled force, and seeing that the men with buckets were making but little progress they saw the necessity of appealing for help. Messages were then sent to Mayor Mayer for the steamers.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE.

Although many of the residents are disheartened over the conflagration yet many believe that the borough will rise Phoenix like from its ashes and that in a few years the town in many ways will be better for the disaster. As soon as the losses are adjusted the insured parties will begin rebuilding, and residents and stores of a modern style of architecture will take the place of those destroyed. Other towns less favorably situated than Mill Hall have struggled from the effects of a calamity like this, and the energy and ambition displayed by our neighboring town in the past is of such a vigorous and laudable character and there is reasons to believe that it, too, will recover from the losses. The fact that a Lock Haven gentleman last evening offered $10.000 for a site in the burned district shows in what a favorable light the future of the town is regarded by moneyed men.

But while taking this hopeful view the unfortunate uninsured property owners must not be overlooked. Much sympathy is felt for them in their distress, and it is hoped that assistance, if they ask it, will be promptly tendered. Of the several families who lose heavily, five are reported as being in destitute circumstances. Everything they owned was burned.

A Coupling Pin in the Frog.

The night's express from Tyrone to Lock Haven on Monday evening had a narrow escape from being derailed, and probably wrecked, The cause was a coupling pin in the frog at the switch just east. of the Milesburg station. When the train passed over the obstruction it created consternation amounting to almost a panic among everybody on board, who thought the train was off the tracks and expected every minute to be dumped over. The train was stopped and an examination revealed a coupling pin tightly wedged in the frog. It seemed to be the opinion of all that the obstruction had been placed there by some malicious person, as it did not seem possible it could have fallen in that place from some passing train.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 130½. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

PREPARING FOR THE ENCAMPMENT.

Orders Issued By Colonel Burchfield to the Fifth Regiment.

In National Guard circles in this state the next event of interest will be the annual encampment of the entire division on the historic field of Gettysburg, and active preparations are now in progress in the various commands in order that the tour of duty may be not only a success from a military point of view, but be attended with as much individual comfort as possible as well.

In this connection the following general orders issued by Colonel Burchfield to the officers and men of the Fifth regiment will be of interest not only to those of our readers who are members of the guard, but to many others who follow the movements of the "soldier boys." IMPORTANT TO CONTRACTORS

The Supreme Court Declarss an Act of Assembly Unconstitutional.

Prior to 1891 the supreme court held that if a principal contractor agreed with the owner that no mechanic's lien should be filed of record for any work done or material furnished in and about the construction of the building, that then, and in that case a sub-contractor, or one furnishing material under an independent contract with the principal contractor, was bound to take notice of the terms of the contract between the owner and original contractor, and was, thereby, precluded from filing a lien for any work done or material furnished by him in the construction of the building.

To the legislature of 1891 this was deemed a hardship, and as a remedy they provided by act of assembly, approved June 8, 1891, that the right of sub-contractors to file liens should in no way be effected by any agreement made by the original contractor or the owner, unless the same was agreed to in writing by the sub-contractor.

The constitutionality of this act has been frequently questioned in the lower courts of this state, in many of which it was denied. And now we have an authoritative expression from the supreme court, which in the case of John T. Waters vs. Ann T. Wolfe, recently handed down, sustained the prevailing opinion of the lower courts by declaring the act of assembly squarely unconstitutional.

A Telephone For Stormstown.

On Tuesday Dr. Thos. Tobin and I. G. Burkett, of Stormstown, were in this place soliciting subscriptions to the fund with which the residents of Stormstown hope to connect themselves with the world. They have never had a railroad, telephone of telegraph line and are making strenuous efforts now to build a telephone of their own.

It is proposed to build a line from Stormstown to Blair bank, where it will connect with the telephone line in operation on the Bellefonte Central rail-road and thus reach the exchange here. The telephone company has agreed to equip it if the people of that place will build the two and one half miles of line necessary. This they are doing now and many poles have already been planted so that ere long the metropolis of Halmoon township will have speaking acquaintance, at least, with the outside world.

The subscriptions to the fund have been quite generous and the line will be built without particular burden to anyone. It is likely that two 'phones will be put in operation. One will be located in one of the stores up there, while the other Dr. Tobin will have in house. The reason that community has never had telephone service is because the number of patrons would never be large enough to justify the telephone company in the building of that 2½ miles of line or maintaining it, but now that the home people are furnishing the money they are going to have it at last.

Thomas Howard the Unintentional Victim of a shooting Affray last Evening.

Thomas Howard, who resides at 403 Twenty-fourth avenue, says the Altoona Times, was Wednesday evening unintentionally shot and badly wounded by a bullet from a revolver in the hands of an angry man, who had fired five shots at a drunkard, who had accosted him on the public highway.

Howard, who is 18 years of age, after the evening meal repaired, with a number of friends, to Twenty-eight avenue and Tenth street, where all hands joined in a game of base ball. The sport progressed until it became too dark for further play, when Howard and several companions seated themselves along the road.

Shortly afterwards a man passed by who was evidently very much under the influence of intoxicating beverages. Just after passing the boys the drunken individual accosted a man who was on his way to Altoona. Exactly what transpired at the meeting is not known, as either Howard nor his associates were in the least interested.

It was a few moments after the two men met when the man who was enroute to the city jerked out a revolver and fired five shots at the inebriate. Fortunately, all missed their intended mark.

One of the bullets, however, lodged in the right hip of young Howard, who immediately informed his friends of the fact whereupon the man who did the shooting, and whom the victim of his recklessness think he knows, fled.

Howard's companions removed him to the hospital, where an examination of his injury was made. The doctors probed for the bullet but failed to locate it and gave up the operation until Thursday when another attempt was made to find it.

Aged Over Four Scores.

Mrs. Catharine Kreamer, wife of Jonathan Kreamer, died at 8.20 o'clock last evening at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. J. A. Hoff, on Columbia avenue, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets. She had been confined to bed since May 1, the cause of death being general decline from old age. Born in Centre county, June 10, 1812, she was aged 82 years and 1 month when the final summons came.

Surviving the deceased are three sons and two daughters. These are Andrew of Hublersburg; B. B. of Punxsutawney; James I., of Dallas, Centre county, Iowa; Mrs. Isabella Haney, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Eliza McIntyre, of Clarion. Mrs. Kreamer was a faithful and exemplary Christian woman, her whole trust being placed in a risen Redeemer. She was a member of the German Reformed church, having united with that denomination at the age of nineteen. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.—Tyrone Herald.

Good News for Johnstown.

The officials of the Cambria Iron Company at Johnstown expect to start every department in full blast some time next week. Some of the mills and furnaces, all of which had been shut down on account of the coke strike, resumed on Monday. While there is no absolute certainty as to the length of time operations will continue the chances for a long run are exceedingly good. The orders now in hand will keep the mills and furnaces busy for five or six weeks, and by the time these are filled it is reasonably certain that enough more will have been received to keep the wheels moving for a considerably longer time.

No matter how hard the times the one thing you cannot afford to go without is ALL the news. If you want ALL the news you get it in the Pittsburgh DISPATCH. The DISPATCH publishes all—not a part only.

Seriously Injured.

On Wednesday morning of last week Miss Elizabeth Miller, residing about one mile south of Tusseyville, was picking cherries, and either by misstep or the breaking of a limb of the tree, fell a distance of about ten feet to the ground alighting on her head. Her scalp was cut from the side of the head down over the forehead, hanging down over the eye. Her nose was broken and she was otherwise severely bruised. Dr. McGeehon put seventeen stitches in the scalp in sewing it together. Her injuries were severe, but she is gradually improving.

Harvest About Ended.

The weather crop bulletin for the week ended July 9th, states that the bulk of the wheat and rye in the central section of the State has been harvested, and an average yield is expected. The weather has been favorable for harvesting and the crops are being housed in good condition. The end of this week will see most of the grain in the barns. Most growing crops are doing well. In some localities rain is badly needed, and pastures are drying up and corn and potatoes suffering from drouth.

Recording Of Deeds.

By the decision of the supreme court handed down Wednesday a common sense interpretation has been placed on the act of May 19, 1893, relative to the recording of deeds. When this act first became known the public were led to believe that an entire new system for the conveyance of land was to be inaugurated and that the owner, who lived in one county while his land was situated in another county, would be put to great inconvenience and expense in having his deed acknowledged.

Yesterday's decision holds that land everywhere throughout the commonwealth can be conveyed exactly in the same manner as prior to the act of May 19, 1893; that the only change made by this act is to reduce the time for recording deeds from six months to ninety days.
